

WILLIAM WILSON DESIGNS NASCAR CHAMPION'S JACKET

Charlotte, NC– May, 29 2011: William Wilson Clothing has partnered with the Speedway Club at Charlotte Motor Speedway to create a special jacket never before worn in NASCAR. Akin to the infamous “Green Jacket” at the Masters, William has designed a jacket for the winners of the Coca-Cola 600 and the bank of America 500. The first was donned by 2011 Coca-Cola 600 winner , Kevin Harvick.

The jacket is part of the invitation-only, ultra exclusive William Wilson “Black Label” collection and is valued at $3500. The jacket is hand made from 100% wool, has brass buttons, and bears the Speedway Club logo on the breast pocket. “It is an honor to design such a unique garment, and to be a part of the history a sport that I love so much.”, says William. “I’m a big race fan. So to be the person to design NASCAR’s first ever Champion’s Jacket was an awesome deal for me.”
